

Assessment Tool to Evaluate and Document Changes in Work Practice

Assess if the following changes in work practice occurred after training	Yes (tick)	No (tick)
Develops an IC facility plan based on the population served, the organization goals, services provided and community disease burden.
Evaluates periodically the effectiveness of the facility plan and modifies as needed. Measures compliance to regulations and standards.
Develops and reviews infection control policies and procedures to be current with evidence-based methods and approaches.
Serves as Infection Control Liaison for health facility, medical staff, community and local Health Department.
Identifies opportunities for improvement based on observation, process indicators, outcome measures and other findings.
Prepares, presents and coordinates educational workshops, lectures, discussions or instruction on a variety of infections control topics, and assists in the infection control orientation for new HCWs.
Instructs patients/families in methods to prevent infection and illness.
Recommends policies and procedures to screen HCWs annually for healthcare acquired illnesses.
Supports evidence based Infection Control best practices and customizes the methods to the clinical situation.
Uses data to support cost effectiveness of Infection Control methods and approaches to prevent infection.		